OFW records obviously show your assertion below is false. Debating whether two entirely different documents with different expense amounts are identical or not is not productive.

I have decided I will no longer explain the reasons for rejecting expenses that dont exactly meet documentation requirements. Please plan accordingly. Thanks

All you do is accuse me and accuse me and accuse me. The receipts were always in there. The exact same receipts.

Exhibit H

Again, entirely unjustified threats are not typical forms of communications, nor do they follow policy. Your original request did not contain receipts, and was inflated by $207.33. I paid all proper expenses and will continue to do so. I will not reimburse inflated or inaccurate expense claims, or those without receipts. Thanks

It's not a threat. I'm not gonna argue with you. I put the receipt in the ofw expense. you can see that it's a medical expense with the girls names on there.

You are the one that brought ada to her appointment. I sent you maes stuff. I can't upload it if ofw won't allow it.

You can become their guarantor I don't want to deal with it. I have to deal with everything. And then beg you to follow the rules. Its nonsense semantics. I gave you everything that you need. For the hundredth time, I looked into it ofw does not allow me to upload a document that you're asking me to, and i've already uploaded the receipts.

If it's not paid, I'm gonna go through my lawyer. It's gonna be very clear to a judge or anybody else that that I gave you everything that you need including uploaded receipts.

You requested I check OFW more frequently. That will happen when messages respect our policy. I requested receipts via OFW expenses. I and most anyone would consider the below message to include a threat. Do you feel this exchange respects policy?

Attached is another receipt. I also sent the summary via email from maes appointment with Dr. Lien.

I sent you everything that you need. I will just go to my lawyer if you keep arguing semantics. You have receipts.

You can submit it. I don't know how to do it. Submit what I sent you in your email. The information I sent you via email has everything on there.

I don't know what you're asking me. It shows the patient balance on both ada and mae and I paid it.

Mae went to Kelley lein for her ear infection. It was not urgent care.

I will resubmit with the receipt. I paid the girls's expenses and my own at the same time. So I blocked out my expenses on the receipt. But as you can see its the same price.

Please resubmit in OFW so we have all the records captured. The expense also needs the following:

- 1) Receipts showing amounts paid (expense only has invoices).
- 2) Explanation of charges/expenses for Kelsey Lien - was this urgent care? I don't recall the reason for the visit, or discussing Mae visiting this specific clinic in Wayzata.

Thanks
